HOLY NAME SOCIETY
TURKEY SHOOT
BASKET RAFFLE

Friends,

Beginning in the 1950's with a formal dinner dance with orchestral music, to the modern day carnival/fair/bazaar, presently known as the "Turkey Shoot", the Holy Name Society has been a part of the area's Thanksgiving holiday. Turkeys, meats, breads, groceries, along with refreshments have been experienced by many of you. Family and class reunions have been planned around the event. To many of you this may be something new.

Due to the darn coronavirus, the Holy Name Society must abandon the physical event and instead, like last year, host a virtual Basket Raffle, featuring all the sought after prizes that make the Turkey Shoot so unique. 25, no...30, no...35, YES...35 Turkey Shoot Baskets will be raffled off this year on Sunday, November 14th at 3:00pm. Complete contents of each basket are listed on the other side of this letter along with an entry form. Plus, there will be a Split-the-Pot offering, always a big hit at the Turkey Shoot.

With the union of 3 parishes into our recently formed St. Paul VI Parish it might seem like that at every turn there is some sort of fundraiser taking place. We understand that you cannot participate in everything, but the Holy Name Society is asking you to give us a look, take a chance, and maybe start or continue a Thanksgiving tradition. You just might be able to tell a new story at the Thanksgiving dinner table.

We cannot physically gather, but we can still attempt to bring some joy to your Thanksgiving holiday. The physical selling of tickets cannot take place, so it must be done using the order form on the other side of this letter.

All entries must be received by Friday, November 12th at 6:00pm!

The Holy Name Society greatly appreciates your generosity throughout the years. The Basket Raffle and Split-the-Pot will hopefully add to a happy Thanksgiving to you and yours. On behalf of the Holy Name Society, we thank you very much for your time and consideration.

ENTER...WIN...ENJOY...SHARE

For the children, there will be a downloadable coloring sheet of a Thanksgiving Turkey on the Mater Christi legacy website. Print it, color it, return or mail it, and five participants will receive a $25 Target Gift Card. We always appreciate the talented children's participation.

The Turkey Shoot Basket Raffle and Split-the-Pot will be streamed on Sunday, November 14th at 3:00pm. A link will be provided on the Mater Christi legacy website, www.materchristichurch.org, to allow everyone to witness the winning moments!
